

Your Info Booklet

Welcome to Happy Hobby Hour Junior!!!

Now you are proud member of HHHJ. Congrats for joining our idea exchanging group. We can't wait to hear your views!!!

You have joined a group that assists kids nurturing in more positive ways so you can adapt to healthier habits, all while setting up realistic fun goals to boost your confidence & socialise with other kids.

Happy Hobby Hour Junior is inspiring kids to engage in activities, helping them to schedule their screen time and also assisting kids with their entrepreneurial ideas so that those kids can unearth their potentials early.

We are all connected for the same cause. We are respectful and we want people to feel confident and safe when using our groups and forums.

We are smart and understand the concept of scheduling screen time and take HHHJ's tried and tested fun steps so that we can enjoy every aspect of our childhood.

You are here for yourself AND ARE RESPONSIBLE for your own actions. You are committed to utilise your interests, hobbies, skills & talents and earn lots of points & rewards.

I'm here to get 50+ M likes on this idea, meaning I want to inspire 50+ M kids and would love to spread hhhj into every school.

My mum Monika from Deals Colony is our mentor and helps us prepare for all our live shows and other cool stuff that we want to do.

I wish you all the best in your exciting journey ahead! Are you ready to become a Responsible, Confident Screen Smart Young Entrepreneur?

- ~~The Rules~~ What to follow as a HHHJ Member

1. Always expect the unexpected
2. Be kind and courteous
3. No hate speech or bullying
4. Respect everyone's privacy
5. No promotions or spams

I'll get into this a bit more. What I mean by always expect the unexpected is that we always think of something new and different, so don't get surprised. You'll get used to it.

Second, what I mean by be kind and courteous is to never let anyone feel down, and to never make anyone feel down. No hate speech or bullying. This one kind of adds on to the last one, be kind and courteous. You must already know what it means but I'll say it anyways. It means to never say anything rude and don't insult anyone's race or gender, or the way they speak, or what they look like. You get the idea.

Next one, respect everyone's privacy. This one means that people might trust you and could share things that most people don't know about. That means that if you do get told something like that, don't spread it to other people because it could be personal, and they might not trust you anymore.

The final one, no promotions or spam. This one is that if you have any business idea that you want to share, you can share it in the group if it's appropriate and approved by a HHHJ official.

- How to earn points: If you want to earn points to get your ranking & rewards, it won't be a simple walk in the park. These are some ways you can earn points by sharing in our facebook group. Check the table below for some inspiration.
